Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-25, drawn to a method to selecting a best case set of factor levels of a catalyzed chemical reaction, classified in class 702, subclass 19.
- II. Claims 26-30, drawn to a system for investigating a catalyzed experimental space, classified in class 700, subclass 1.
- III. Claims 31-32, drawn to a method of determining whether a set of factor levels is a significant set, classified in class 702, subclass 19.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions II is related to Inventions I and III as product and processes of use.

The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case, although the product of Group II is not specifically limited to be for use in running a particular method, the limitations of the system render it useful for running either of the methods of Groups I and III.

Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions recite different method steps and are directed to different results. In addition, either method maybe performed without knowledge of or reference to the steps or results of the other method.

Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for any one Group is not required for any other Group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Species Election

This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

(A) a space definition: (1) Graeco-Latin square, (2) Hyper-Graeco-Latin square, (3) Youden square, (4) Latin square;

(B) a type of analysis of result: (1) analysis of variance, (2) Percent of Variance Explained, (3) Tukey Simultaneous Tests, (4) by determining ratios of mean values of results and standard error and determining statistical differences.

(C) a catalyst, as set forth in claims 22-25.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species from group (A) AND group (B) AND group (C) above for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 6-7, 9-10, and 15-21 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
